Leading The Way

*Innovation: 80's Thoughts
With 90's Expressions*

Direction is the main element on which the college careers of all COA students hinge; the faculty and staff provide each of us with this much needed guidance. They have the knowledge we seek. We have the potential they wish to enhance. Together we are responsible for the future — hand in hand with our educators leading the way.

Dear COA Students,

Thank you for choosing College of the Albemarle. We have an excellent student body this year. I hope you have enjoyed your interaction with our faculty and staff. They are as good as you will find at any community college or university. I am confident that you will look back on your studies and activities at COA as being a highlight in your life.

All of the COA faculty and staff join me in wishing each of you success and happiness in the future.

Sincerely,

On September 11, 1989, COA lost a valuable and trusted employee with the death of Bill Haskett. Mr. Haskett was loved by the students of COA. He generously shared his talent, time, and concern; his warmth and wit will be greatly missed. In his memory we dedicate the 1990 Beacon to

FACULTY

LEARNING FROM EXPERIENCE

The faculty at COA know learning from experience is the best kind of learning. Not only do students learn through the lectures of their instructors but also through the skills gained by individual experience that corresponds with their program of study. Learning is a double process. No matter how much you learn there is still more knowledge to understand. This is true for both instructors and their students. Through questions students gain an education from their instructors. Their instructors also learn from these questions and gain new insight about their subject matter. Many of COA's faculty are involved in student clubs which also increase our college education. With the knowledge of experience is the way our faculty teaches the students here at COA.

"OK now let's take it from the top!"

Setting The Pace

Faces of the Eighties Designing the Nineties

As the student body of COA ventures into the nineties and beyond we will be setting the pace for the future. We, with the knowledge bestowed upon us at this and other institutions, will be left to design the times of the future. The achievements we reach at COA will remain to benefit and be enjoyed by many future classes.

Joining The Best

Breakin' Out of the 80's Routine & Bursting into 90's involvement

Upbeat, fast paced, and full of energy are just a few phrases to describe COA's "club scene". From the Biology Club on Main Campus to the Young Democrats Club at Dare, everyone is actively involved in supporting College of the Albemarle.

Painting The Town

Looking Back, Moving Forward

An eventful year is a memorable year; the '89-'90 school year was no exception. Students and faculty members worked side by side year round to pull club members and nonmembers together. A moment in retrospect allows us to remember some of those remarkable feats and lasting impressions made throughout the year.

COA Community and Small Business Center Opens . . .

Friday, January 5, with two hours of entertaining music compliments of Mike Cross and the North Carolina Symphony, conducted by Jackson Parkhurst. The Follies, directed by Ms. Lucy Vaughn, began practice the following day.

BRIAN MORRIS PERFORMS

Brian Morris, formally with the visiting artist program, performed for students in the Student Center. Mr. Morris teaches jazz guitar at Alma College in Michigan, and his collective performance was appreciated as it helped bring the Winter quarter to a happy close.

COLLEGE DAY!

Representatives from several North Carolina universities gathered today to offer their assistance to any potential transfer students. They answered many questions concerning admissions, financial aid and various classes.

Governor Jim Martin Sets Up Headquarters at New COA Community Center

Tuesday, January 23, 1990, Governor Jim Martin began his 'Capital for a Day' visit at COA. He was welcomed with a reception at the new Community and Small Business Center where his staff also set up office hours until 4:00 pm.

Young Republicans Meet With Governor Martin

During Governor Martin's visit to COA, he specifically asked to meet with one of the COA student organizations — "The Young Republicans." The Governor took thirty minutes of his schedule to take pictures with the Young Republicans, joke with them, and to let them know that the YRC can be of great help to the Republican candidates from the Eastern part of North Carolina. He also encouraged all the members to vote and to participate in the election process.

Rodger Rossmon

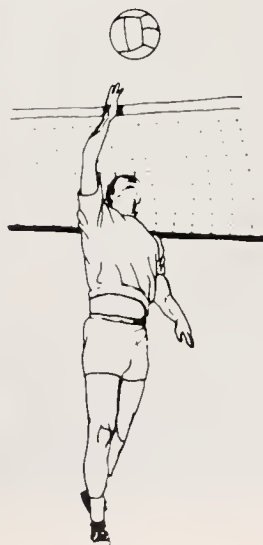

The Student Senate held its Annual Fall Flea Market on October 21, Saturday, in the A parking lot. Five clubs had tables set up along with four non-student groups. It was sunny but breezy and approximately 400 lookers and buyers came through.

Since 1963, the unique 20-sided roofline of Carofista Jewelry Designs has symbolized to visitors to the Outer Banks the unique artistry and craftsmanship of Carolista Fletcher-Golden. Granddaughter of the late historical novelist, Inglis Fletcher Carolista has apprenticed and studied stonemasonry, precious and semiprecious gems as well as the metals associated with fine jewelry making.

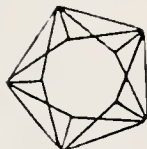

Artist, teacher, and master craftsman, she now has had a studio in Williamsburg, Virginia, among the other professionals who preserve the crafts that identify American art at its finest. For 25 years she has had a studio and store in Nags Head, North Carolina, where she has created her personalized and beautiful jewelry. Although the shop has a large stock of earrings, rings, pendants, and miniature sculptures, Carolista also does a limited number of special orders and your inquiry is invited.

While visiting the shop, notice historical charms and pendants as well as the large selection of wedding and engagement rings that have become a tradition with Carolista Jewelry Designers.

Carolista's most recent commissions include: Elizabeth II medallion and pendant, North Carolina DAR pin, Lost Colony charms and pendants.

ENGAGEMENT RINGS OF COMPLIMENTARY DESIGN

The measure for size is the carat with 100 points to the carat. As diamonds increase in size their price will increase at a much faster rate if the quality remains the same. But a larger diamond of inferior quality may be worth less than a smaller diamond that is perfect. Please ask for a detailed explanation.

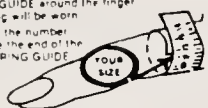

The true beauty of a diamond is never to be revealed until it is properly cut and faceted. The angle between any two facets must be accurate to within a half degree to bring out full fire and brilliance. Anything less than correct cut reduces beauty, brilliance and value.

Most diamonds described as white have a slight tinge of color. Fine white diamonds are quite rare and valued as colorless. Other shades in relative order of their worth are Blue, yellow, brown and black.

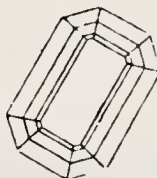

The absence of flaws, cracks, surface spots, clouds and other imperfections determine the degree of clarity. A perfect diamond has no imperfections when examined under ten power magnification by a trained eye.

HOW TO EASILY MEASURE YOUR EXACT RING SIZE

- 1 Cut out the RING GUIDE carefully below instruction #3
- 2 Wrap the RING GUIDE around the finger on which the ring will be worn.
- 3 Your ring size is the number closest to where the end of the strip meets the RING GUIDE.
